Meeting began 4:06pm via Zoom

1. Budget – Brandon
  - a. Fundraising was limited to raising $1,100 excluding sales from the pottery sale.
  - b. Products for fundraising that have done well were the yearbooks which were about $3,000.
  - c. Overhead expenses to run the PTO include $400 for insurance, plus other fees associated with square, sales tax, and website for the year.
  - d. School support has been frozen except for a $200 funds request for books.
  - e. The PTO has $15,000 saved to go into next year.
  - f. The pottery sale was successful with a $1,100 to go into the art budget.
    - i. Thanks Hollie Thomson for organizing everything.
2. yearbooks
  - a. Stacie McCain did a lot of yearbooks this year and we want to thank her for all of her hard work on a difficult year.
3. PTO update
  - a. The PTO is currently spending more than what it has been taking in and we haven't been able to get volunteers to fill vacant board positions.
  - b. To dissolve the Trail Wind PTO we would need a 2/3 majority from those at the meeting. The current bylaws are on the PTO website for reference.
    - i. Vote for PTO Dissolution - 7 for, 1 oppose. Motion passed.
  - c. Loose ends would be tied in July.
  - d. To reincorporate the PTO, the new organization will have to reincorporate everything.
4. Beverly Boyd update
  - a. The PTO will be changed to the Trail Wind Booster club and all the financing will be run through the principal and the foundation.
  - b. The current board will decide which events to keep: Holiday Bizarre, Monster Mash, Art Night, Carnival, etc.
  - c. Bev will appoint teachers to over see each event including a chair person that will run the event.
    - i. Google form survey to be sent out to see which parents are interested in chair which events.
    - ii. Parents volunteer to help principal to check budget of the Booster. Principal to meet with chairperson for the event to go over the event's budget.
  - d. PTO assets and legal entity would transfer to Trail Wind Elementary.

- e. General consensus is that this would help parents be more involved in the school without PTO bylaws. At back to school night & newsletters to recruit
- f. for volunteering.

End 4:40pm
